The date is May 28, 1965, and station KRUD is about to bring you Joe Russo with the latest news highlights.

Good evening, radio audience this is your favorite newscaster, Joe Russo, with the latest local, national, and international news. First some sports highlights. The New York Yankees front office disclosed today that Bob Davenport, ace pitcher, will receive an estimated $200,000.00 salary. This will make the 28 year old hurler the highest paid player in the circuit. Davenport won 32 games for the Yanks last year.

Sally Bromberg, swimming star of the movies, married a wealthy oilman from Texas today. Her husband gave her the Gulf of Mexico as a wedding present. She can currently be seen in the great saga "Neptune's Mother."

Don't forget this news broadcast is made possible by "Mad Man Monty," king of the used car dealers. Mr. Wales will show you everything from an ancient 41 coupe with original hand painted white sidewalls to a 65 Gasmoac. He is located conveniently at 12th & Grand Ave. Bovee, So. Dak.

In the fashion world today the National Clothiers Association has named Sandra Roper of Macey's as top model of the year. Miss Roper will accompany Miss Helen Taylor, internationally known fashion designer, to Paris for Dior's Spring Fashion Show. After a three week vacation, Miss Roper and Miss Taylor will return to the United States to continue work.

Janelle Kirwan, author of the novel, "Farmer's Daughter," has just sold the rights of that book to Warner Bros. Studio. She has just reported she received $17,00.00 for all rights. Miss Kirwan is working on a new book called "True Gentlemen Prefer Brunettes."

Professor Carol West of Vassar, has just been named President of the National Education Association. Dr. West will move into her new office next week to begin work. Miss West has been Professor for two years.

. . . . .And now a word from our announcer. The second portion of this program, is being brought to you through the courtesy of A.A. Home Permanent. These kits were specially designed by Arlene Anderson, famous beautician, for women with the "impossible-to-manage type hair." A.A. is sold only at pool halls and cigar stores. Hurry down and get yours. The supply is limited.

Flash!! This news commentator has just received a telegram from the Olympic Games in London. Guy Rhoades, U.S. top trackman, has just broken the world's record in the high jump and high hurdles. Rhoades went over the mythical 7ft. mark and clipped the hurdles in a remarkable time of 13.3.

Be sure and stay tuned for an Evening of Music with Don Vaughn, America's most popular disc jockey. Mr. Vaughn plays popular, old favorites, and classics. His nightly 2 hour show is packed with good music, jokes and anecdotes. It's DeVe's Evening of Music tonight for two full hours over KRUD.

Gillam laboratories today signed a contract with the Government to produce their new ownder drug, nickel-cillen. Pat Gillam president says that nickel-cillen is five times better than penny-cillen.

Good Luck Seniors of '55. We know you'll do well in all phases of work.

PROM

On May 4, 1955, the junior class of P. H. S. presented the annual prom and banquet. The theme was "Evening in Paris", carried out by a street scene covering half the auditorium. The ceiling was entirely covered with crepe paper as the sky. The sides were made to appear as awnings coming out from different buildings. As the seniors walked into the gym they saw their class motto in silver letters against a blue background. The scene was lit with pale blue light from several different angles. The banquet was attended by the seniors, juniors, and faculty. The prom starting at 9:00 o'clock included everyone. Everyone attending had a good time dancing to the music of Jess Gayer and in the lovely setting the juniors had worked so hard to make possible. After the prom a late movie was shown with a delicious lunch to end the evening.

HOMECOMING

The annual Homecoming festivities of Pickstown High School began Thursday night October 7, with the presentation of skits by the classes and 2 musical numbers by the sextet. The highlight of the evening came when Jim Herrold, student council president, crowned Sally Bromberg and Guy Rhoades as Queen and Marshall of the 1954 Homecoming. After the Coronation, a successful Snake Dance was held which ended at the late movie. Friday, the 8th, brought the day of the game with Lake Andes. At the halftime of the game the Queen, Marshall, and their attendants were presented to the spectators. With a record number of alumni taking part, a very successful Homecoming was ended although our game was not quite so successful. The Engineers dropped to the Lake Andes Eagles by a margin of 24-14.
